

The Shock Doctrine:

Indigenous Peoples Experience in Canada

Symposium of Indigenous Human Rights and Environmental Activists

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

June 19 & 20, 2008

Maritime Labour Center, 1880 Triumph Street, Vancouver, BC

Naomi Klein, author of The Shock Doctrine will be special guest on June 19th, 2008 and interact on a panel with Indigenous Human Rights and Environmental Activists.

Space Will Be Limited Please Confirm Participation with
Arthur Manuel at amanuel@telus.net or 250-319-0688

Agenda

June 19, 2008 – The Shock Doctrine: Indigenous Peoples Experience in Canada (Closed to Indigenous Activists and Invited Guests.)

- 9 a.m. Opening Prayer
- The Shock Doctrine – Introduction and Power Point – Arthur Manuel, INET
- 10 a.m. Panel One: Criminalization of Indigenous Human Rights and Environmental Activists

Councilor Sam McKay, Kitchenuhmaykoosib Inninuwig or
KI – Ontario Mining Exploration –
Chief & 5 Council Arrested 2008

Picture: L-R: KI member Bruce Sakakeep, Chief Donny Morris, Deputy Chief Jack McKay, Councilors Darryl Sainnawap and Samuel McKay in prison uniforms

Spokesman Oscar Dennis,
Tahltan – British Columbia
Mining, 9 Tahltan Elders
Arrested 2005

Kanahus Manuel on Sun Peaks
Expansion – Secwepemc, British Columbia Tourism – Over 50
Indigenous Peoples Arrested 2001

- 11:30 – 12:00 p.m. Press Conference – 2010 Winter Olympics and Canada’s Human Rights Record
- 12:00 – 1:30 p.m. Traditional Feast: Salmon BBQ – June Quipp, Cheam and Fried Bread – Irene Billy, Adams Lake

1:30 – 3:30 p.m.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Naomi Klein – The Rise of Disaster Capitalism ● Residential School and Land Settlement ● Continuing Panel Dialogue ● Question and Answers
--------------------------------	---	--

- 6 – 10 p.m. PUBLIC SPEAKING EVENT, Naomi Klein,
 - General Public Event – Everyone Welcome
 - Doors Open at 6 p.m.
 - Same Location
 - Indigenous participation

June 20, 2008 – Panel Two: Impact of Commercial and Industrial Economics on Traditional Values, Knowledge and Activities

- Food Sovereignty – Dawn Morrison, Secwepemc, BC Food Systems Network Working Group on Indigenous Food Sovereignty
- Fish Farming – Eric Joseph, Chairman TFN Council
- Mining – Ethan Baptiste, Masters Student, Okanagan
- Water – Dorothy Christian, Splats’in Community
- Tourism – Janice Billy, Spokesperson, Skwelkwek’welt Protection Center
- Forestry – Chief Qwatsinas of the Nuxalk Peoples
- Local Application of Land Claim Policy and Treaty Process – Chief Ron West and Chief Richard Williams Hereditary Leaders of the Carrier Peoples of Lake Babine

- 2010 Winter Olympics and Human Rights – Arthur Manuel

- Questions & Answers
- General Discussion: Connecting the Dots
- Closing Prayer

MAP – The Shock Doctrine Event, June 19 & 20, 2008

The Event will be held at the Maritime Labour Center, 1880 Triumph Street, Vancouver, British Columbia listed below in the map with free parking.

10 MINUTES FROM DOWNTOWN

The Maritime Labour Centre is located on the city's north-east side. Turn north off Hastings onto Victoria Drive. You can access our free parking at Pandora and Victoria. The entrance to the hall is on Triumph Street. The building is air-conditioned and wheelchair accessible.

WE ARE NOT PROTESTORS

We are Indigenous Human Rights and Environmental Activists

Sponsored and Hosted by:

Seventh Generation Fund for Indian Development, California, USA

and

Indigenous Network on Economies and Trade (INET), BC, Canada